Service Agreement

EVENT SERVICE AGREEMENT

This agreement is between Seaside Spirits Mobile Bartending (“Seaside,” “we”) and the Client named below. Payment of a 50% deposit, or signature below, books the date and accepts these terms. This is dry-hire bartending: the Client purchases all alcohol. Seaside does not sell, buy, or transport alcohol.

1. WHAT SEASIDE PROVIDES

Professional bartender(s); mixers, ice, cups, napkins, straws, and garnishes as included in the booked package; bar tools and setup; service during the hours purchased; full bar cleanup; an alcohol shopping list; and general liability plus liquor liability insurance. A certificate of insurance for the venue will be issued on request. A tip jar is allowed unless the Client or venue directs otherwise. Tips are not part of this fee.

2. WHAT THE CLIENT PROVIDES

All beer, wine, and liquor, purchased and at the venue before start time; a safe, reasonably weather-protected workspace if outdoors; confirmation of venue rules; and a final guest count at least 7 days before the event. The Client is the host and is responsible for venue rules and applicable law. If alcohol or a usable bar area is not ready at the scheduled start, service still ends at the scheduled end time and the full fee is due.

3. FEES

Essential $599 · up to 80 guests · 1 bartender · up to 4 hours. Signature $999 · up to 80 guests · 1 bartender · up to 5 hours. Premium $1,499 · over 80 guests · 2 bartenders · up to 6 hours. No per-guest surcharge. Other events quoted from a $500 minimum. Extra bartender $75/hour for the package hours only. Extra service hour $125, which already includes the bartender for that hour. No extra travel charge anywhere in New England (New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Maine, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Connecticut). Add-ons on this form or a Thumbtack invoice are due with the balance.

4. PAYMENT

A 50% deposit holds the date. The remaining balance is due on or before the event date (or the due date written above). Unpaid balances may cancel the booking. Deposits apply to the total. Returned payments may be charged $35.

5. CANCELLATION, DATE CHANGES, WEATHER

The deposit holds the date, and we turn other events away for it. The sooner you tell us plans have changed, the easier it is for both of us. Move the date once: with 30 or more days’ notice, and if the new date is open, we will move the event once at no extra charge. The deposit stays with the new date. Inside 30 days, changing the date cancels the original date under the schedule below. A new date is a new booking only if we can take it. 30 or more days before the event: we keep the deposit and nothing else is due. 14–29 days: half the total fee is due. The deposit counts toward that. Fewer than 14 days, or no one is there when we arrive: the full fee is due, because that day cannot be given to someone else. Weather: if the bar is outdoors with no cover and the weather is not safe to serve, tell us as soon as you know. We will try to move the date once. If we cannot find a day that works for both of us, we keep the deposit and the rest is not due — unless we are already on the way or on site, in which case the full fee is due. If Seaside must cancel for safety, illness, or because we cannot staff the event, amounts paid for that date will be refunded.

6. SERVICE, ALCOHOL, AND INSURANCE

Seaside may refuse service to anyone who appears intoxicated, underage, or unsafe. We do not serve anyone under 21. The Client warrants they have legal authority to serve alcohol at the location. Seaside does not take leftover alcohol. We are not responsible for alcohol the Client purchases, guest conduct, or venue conditions outside our control. Our insurance covers our bartending operations; it does not replace the host’s or venue’s obligations. Client agrees to indemnify Seaside for claims arising from alcohol the Client supplied or from guest conduct, except to the extent caused by Seaside’s own negligence.

7. PHOTOS AND OTHER

Seaside may photograph the bar setup for portfolio use unless the Client objects in writing before the event. This agreement, plus any invoice it accompanies, is the full understanding for this event. New Hampshire law applies. If a court finds one part unenforceable, the rest remains in effect.
